EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Jerald L. Meyer on January 20, 2004.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 12, line 10, after "equal" add -- to --.

In claim 13, line 1, cancel "homogenised".

In claim 14, line 1, cancel "homogenised".

In claim 15, line 1, cancel "homogenised".

In claim 16, line 1, cancel "homogenised".

In claim 23, line 1, cancel "homogenised".

In claim 24, line 1, cancel "homogenised".

In claim 25, line 1, cancel "homogenised".

In claim 26, line 1, cancel "homogenised".

In claim 27, line 1, cancel "homogenised".

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art of record fails to teach the recited mass comprising at least 45% by weight of an amorphous starch. Claim 12, the independent claim, identifies the uniquely distinct features of a mass that include "the mass is a homogenized mass having a limiting viscosity index of at least 40 ml/g and wherein the starch has an amylopectin content of greater or equal to 50% by weight with respect to the weight of the starch in water-free condition". The closest prior art of record, Stroud (USPN 5,554,385), discloses a soft gelatin capsule made with a homogenized starch that has a lower limiting viscosity index than the claimed article, as shown by the testing in the Declaration, which either singularly or in combination fail to anticipate or render obvious the above limitations since the Applicant is showing unexpected results with the limiting viscosity index.

Art Unit: 1772

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
